Heartsongs

A Hospice celebration

About the Artist...

Carol and Mark Krochak, the owner of Horizon Porcelain, live in Burke Hollow, Vermont. Since 1980 they have been making ornaments entirely by hand. Meticulous workmanship and the exceptional purity of porcelain combine to produce these fine works known for their translucency and delicacy.

Thank you for supporting Hospice.

Other Participants...

Printing of this brochure was donated by L. Brown & Sons, Barre.

CVHHH is committed to providing comprehensive, high-quality home health and hospice care to all Central Vermonters, regardless of their ability to pay.

About Heartsongs...

"Heartsongs" honors those who have touched our lives. These fine porcelain ornaments, hand-crafted by a Vermont artist, are beautiful keepsakes to remember a loved one during the holiday season.

For $15 you will receive a white porcelain heart embossed with a delicate lace detail. It can be in memory (or in honor) of anyone you choose. The name (and a date if you wish) will be written in ink on the back of the ornament.

Proceeds from "Heartsongs" will benefit those who need hospice services.

About Hospice...

Hospice has existed in Central Vermont since 1981. The goal is to provide terminally ill people and their loved ones with the physical, psychological, and spiritual support they need to live their lives to the fullest and face death together. Hospice also provides support to survivors following the death of their loved one.

Hospice could not exist without the generous support of hundreds of volunteers who donate their time; physicians and other health care providers who supply expertise and caring; Central Vermont town funding, United Way, and business and individual community donors who give in support of our work.
