$30,000 Raised at 2018 Hospice Memorial Golf Tournament

Barre, VT – The 22nd Annual Hospice Memorial Golf Tournament was held on Wednesday, June 20 at the Country Club of Barre. Twenty one teams gathered for a day of golf, a silent auction, a Red Sox ticket raffle, and a delicious barbecue dinner provided by a top sponsor, New England Excess Exchange.

Sandy Rouse, CVHHH's President & CEO, welcomed players, volunteers, and guests with a reminder that hospice is about life. She said: "Hospice creates opportunities for patients, families, and friends to focus on moments that will remain in the hearts of those left behind forever. With the proceeds from this event, our Hospice team can help create more of these special moments." Stephen Connor, of Connor Contracting, an Eagle Sponsor, kicked off the Tournament, and off went the golf carts.

With the outpouring of support from individuals and businesses, CVHHH raised over $30,000 to support CVHHH Hospice.
